Radiant in White Satin

Miss Carmen Mae Martin and John Stephen McGee, both instructors in the Torrance Unified School district, were married Sunday, February 3, in Redondo Beach. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Chester F. Martin and the late Chester F. Martin, 1649 Via Arriba, Palos Verdes estates.—Triangle Camera Shop Photo

Carmen Martin Weds John McGee

At the St. James Catholic church, Redondo Beach, Miss Carmen Mae Martin became Mrs. John Stephen McGee, on February 3, at 3:30 p.m.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Chester F. Martin and the late Chester F. Martin, 1649 Via Arriba, Palos Verdes estates, was given away in marriage by her uncle, McKinley Martin.

Her gown was of white satin with long sleeves and a long train. She also wore the pearl necklace her mother wore at her wedding. She carried lily-of-the-valley with a white orchid corsage and miniature red roses. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a beautifully designed pearl and satin tiara. Matron of honor Mrs. William Fowler, cousin of the bride from Sunland, Calif., and maid of honor Miss Ina Mae Niven, Los Angeles, wore nile green crystalline cocktail length dresses with matching hats and shoes. They carried deep red carnation sprays.

Best man was Jim Weber and ushers were Bob Weber, Jerry Bymun, Bob Graff, Bob Halbert, and Lee Stiles.

The bride's mother wore a beige lace sheath dress with champagne accessories and a green cymbidium orchid corsage. The groom's mother, Mrs. Edward McGee, wore a turquoise faille dress with white and black accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage.

Organist Mrs. Grunman accompanied Miss Mary Burch, soloist, who sang "O God of Loveliness," "The Lord's Prayer," and "The Wedding Feast." After the double ring ceremony officiated by Father John McKenna, a reception for the immediate families and bridal party was held at the bride's home in P.V.

The bride graduated from Banning High school, Harbor Junior college, and the University of Southern California where she was affiliated with Kappa Delta sorority. She is a member of Bethel 57, Order of Job's Daughters, the Wilmington Junior Woman's club, Theta Sigma Junior alums and Kappa Delta South Bay alums. She is a kindergarten teacher at the Seaside Elementary school, Torrance.

John McGee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGee, 538 8th st., Hermosa Beach, is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles, USC, and is affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity and Phi Delta Kappa, education honorary society. He teaches at Sepulveda Elementary school.

The couple will reside at 1649 Via Arriba, Palos Verdes.

Fuchsia Society

The executive committee of the California Fuchsia Society, Lomita branch, will meet Wednesday, February 13, at the home of Mrs. Ella Stiles, 23007 Arlington at 7:30 p.m. The regular meeting of the club will be held Friday, February 15, at the American Legion hall, Lomita.

BARRINGTON-RIEGEL VOWS EXCHANGED FEBRUARY 3

In a striking wedding dress of antique delustered satin and lace, Miss Frances Inez Barrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Barrington, 1541 Post ave, married Forrest Z. Riegel, Sunday, February 3.

White gladiolas, china chrysanthemums and white candles beautifully decorated the First Methodist church, Torrance, for the afternoon ceremonies officiated by Rev. John L. Taylor.

The bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father wearing an exquisite gown which featured wide lace panels, front and back, and soft pleats on the sides of the bouffant satin skirt forming paniers. The tight-fitted lace bodice was distinctive with its oriental neckline and long sheer sleeves. Her matching Elizabethian cap was trimmed in seed pearls and held in place by a long finger tip illusion veil. A chapel train completed the stunning bridal creation. She carried a white Bible which had been presented to her at birth, and a white orchid surrounded by lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. John A. Barrington, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Meses. John F. Kelly, C. Scott Wilhelm and Robert Tolson. They wore ballerina-length tangerine taffeta dresses with a sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. The tight-fitting waist lines in matching taffeta formed a cummerbund and bustle in back. They wore matching shoes, white gloves, and a tangerine net headpiece and carried Tallman rose bouquets to complete the ensemble.

The bride's nieces, Lesley Allison Barrington and Claudia Lynn Barrington were flower girls. Their full length white taffeta bouffant dresses were also offset by tangerine taffeta cummerbunds and a bustle bow. They wore white gloves and Tallman rose crowns. Mrs. Barrington, mother of the bride, chose a toast lace outfit and matching hat for her daughter's wedding.

Commander John W. Graham, USN, was the best man, from New Cumberland, Penn. He is the groom's brother-in-law. John A. Barrington, the bride's brother, C. Scott Wilhelm, Ronald Chase and Charles Johnson ushered the 250 guests to their seats.
